

Two Uniquely
American Experiences
Offered in March 2007
by Talaria Farms

Southern Comfort AND WESTERN PLEASURE

SATURDAY MARCH 17

Demonstrations of the Western divisions (Western Pleasure, Reining, Trail). Appropriate tack and apparel for Western classes. Evaluating young stock for careers in Western Pleasure. "Old South" breakfast, lunch, Mint Julep social hour and dinner.

SUNDAY MARCH 18

Starting the beginner Western horse. Hands-on work with horses, emphasizing how to correct problems with western horses (gaits, head and neck set, proper "cueing" and direction.) Lunch, social hour and "Chuck Wagon" dinner. Presentations of young stock and seasoned western champions each evening during social hour.

TRAINERS / CLINICIANS

JODY STRAND • Strand's Arabian Stables
2005 APAHA Western Trainer of the Year

DALE BROWN • Dale Brown Performance Horses
2006 APAHA Rising Star Trainer Nominee

COST: $100 USD per person (includes all meals)

Talaria Farms is happy to arrange tours of other local Arabian horse farms and assistance in visiting additional points of local interest such as antebellum homes, Southern gardens, and the world's largest aquarium in Atlanta.

GETTING THERE

Atlanta's Hartsfield International Airport is serviced by direct flights from most major European and U.S. cities. Talaria Farms is conveniently located only 30 minutes South of Atlanta's Hartsfield International Airport — and just five minutes off Interstate 85.

FOR MORE DETAILS, CONTACT TALARIA FARMS. TEL: 770-251-7005
E-MAIL: allison@talariafarms.com • www.talariafarms.com

